

ELIZAVETA TRAKHALINA

Currently working as an Assistant Attorney at “Sysouev, Bondar, Khrapoutski SBH” Law office in Minsk, Belarus, specializing mostly on legal support in international arbitration matters under SCC, ICC, LCIA and BelCCI Arbitration rules.

In 2017, Elizaveta graduated from Belarusian State University, with a specialization International Law. Her graduation thesis was dedicated to contemporary approaches to defining ratione materiae in international investment disputes in ICSID and ad hoc arbitration.

As a student, Elizaveta took part in various moot court competitions involving issues of state-to-state and investor-state dispute settlement, such as Ph. Jessup International Law Moot Court, Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court and Willem C. Vis Moot Court Competition. Elizaveta has also founded the project “Arbitration for Belarus”.

EKATERINA SHKARBUTA

At the moment working as a Junior associate in “Sysouev, Bondar, Khrapoutski SBH” Law office in Minsk, Belarus, specializing mostly on:

- legal support of investment projects in Belarus and cross-border investment projects, legal support of investment projects of Belarusian companies abroad;

- consulting clients on the issues of corporate management, immunities of the foreign property invested in Belarus, on doing business in Belarus, especially in special preferential regimes.

In 2017 Ekaterina has graduated from Belarusian State University, with a specialization International Law. Her graduation thesis was dedicated to Expropriation and Police Powers in International Investment Law.

Being a student has participated in various moot court competitions involving issues of state-to-state and investor-state dispute settlement, such as Ph. Jessup International Law Moot Court and Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court.